THE HONOURABLE THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF BRITISH BALUCHISTAN.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Quetta, the 1st March 1909.

No. 540.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874) and with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to extend the provisions of the Land Improvement Loans Act (Act XIX of 1883) as amended by Act VIII of 1906, to British Baluchistan.

No. 541.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 1 (2) of the Land Improvement Loans Act (XIX of 1883) as extended to British Baluchistan, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to appoint the 1st April 1909 as the date on which the said Act shall come into force in British Baluchistan.

No. 542.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 10 of the Land Improvement Loans Act (XIX of 1883) as extended to British Baluchistan, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to make the following rules for the working of the said Act in British Baluchistan :—

Draft Rules under the Land Improvement Loans Act.

Annual allotment and its distribution.

1. On receipt of sanction to the annual estimate of Imperial advances and loans the Revenue Commissioner will distribute the allotment for the Baluchistan Agency.

Reserve with Revenue Commissioner and power to transfer funds.

2. In making the distribution required by the foregoing rule, the Revenue Commissioner will retain a small reserve to meet applications from District Officers for extra grants. The Revenue Commissioner is authorized to redistribute District allotments, as occasion may require.

Application for additional grant over and above the annual allotment.

3. If in any year an additional grant, over and above the total allotment for the year, should be required, the Revenue Commissioner will submit an application for the orders of the Local Government.

Officers authorized to grant loans.

4. (a) Subject to the provisions of these rules, and within the limits of the funds allotted to him for the purpose, the Collector of a District may grant loans not exceeding ₹1,000 for any one improvement as defined in Section 4 of the Act. Applications for loans in excess of ₹1,000 for any one work shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner, who is authorized to sanction the grant of loans not exceeding ₹3,000 in any one case. Applications for loans in excess of ₹3,000 shall be submitted with the Revenue Commissioner's recommendations for the orders of the Local Government.

(b) The Collector may, in his discretion, allot funds from his District allotment to any Sub-Divisional Officer or Officers of his District, and may empower such Officer or Officers to grant loans up to a limit not exceeding ₹500 for any one work within the limits of the funds so allotted.

Applications for loans.

5. Applications for loans may be presented to any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar. Such applications should usually be in the annexed Form A, of which printed copies should be made available to intending borrowers free of charge. When an application for a loan is made orally, or otherwise than in Form A, the Officer to whom it is made shall himself record it in the prescribed form or he shall cause it to be so recorded by some responsible subordinate official.

Enquiry into application and officers by whom enquiry should be made.

6. A local enquiry shall be held at as early a date as possible by the Officer entertaining the application, or by such Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar as may be called upon by him to make such enquiry, into the circumstances of the applicant, the sufficiency of the security offered and such other particulars as may be necessary for determining whether or not it is desirable to grant the loan.

Enquiry to be made by Kanungo in special cases.

7. Where the amount of the loan applied for does not exceed ₹500 and the local enquiry cannot be made within a reasonable time by a Tahsildar or a Naib Tahsildar without detriment to his other work, the Sub-Divisional Officer or in his absence the Tahsildar may in his discretion cause the requisite enquiry to be made by a Kanungo of the Tahsil.

Report giving result of enquiry.

8. The result of the enquiry shall be recorded in Form B. (on the reverse of Form A) and the papers shall then be forwarded, through the proper channel, to the Officer having authority to sanction the loan.

Power to order further enquiry.

9. The Officer to whom such a report is submitted may for sufficient reason cause a further enquiry to be held before forwarding or recommending for sanctioning the application, but care should be taken that no unnecessary delay is allowed to occur in making such further enquiry. No application shall be rejected except by order of the Officer competent to sanction it, or (in the case of loans requiring the sanction of the Revenue Commissioner or the Agent to the Governor General) of the Collector.

Conditions to be complied with before loans are given.

10. No loan shall be granted unless enquiries show that the conditions of Section 4, clause (1) of the Act are fulfilled, and that the security offered is good and sufficient.

Amount of loan to be sufficient to cover total outlay.

11. In dealing with applications for loans generally, and more particularly for loans for constructing or improving Karezes or water courses or for carrying out other irrigation schemes, it is of importance that a close estimate should be made of the total outlay required to complete the project, and that the amount of the loan should be sufficient to cover so much of the total outlay as the borrower is unable to provide from his own capital, or to obtain on reasonable terms from other sources.

Karezes.

12. The construction and extension of Karezes are works of a very speculative nature, and no loans should ordinarily be given in such cases until the probability of the success of the project has been ascertained by sinking trial wells and taking approximate levels. Where it is conveniently possible, and in all cases where the outlay is large, the Irrigation Officer in Baluchistan or some local Public Works Department Officer should be asked to examine and report on the project. The grant or refusal of the loan should mainly depend on such Officer's report. When such report is unfavourable, no loan should be given without the special sanction of the Revenue Commissioner.

Security for loan.

13. (a) Security as hereinafter prescribed shall be taken before any loan is made under these rules.

(1) Where the applicant's interest in the land or water to be improved, or in both, is apart from the improvement proposed in itself of sufficient value to cover the amount of the loan, the sanctioning officer may in his discretion dispense with further security.

(2) Where such interest is not in itself of sufficient value to cover the amount of the loan, further security should be taken, which may consist of :—

(i) The applicant's interest in other land or water or both,

(ii) Land or water, or both, belonging to any other person or persons who is or are willing to become the applicant's surety or sureties,

(iii) Personal security.

(3) (a) Where the application for a loan is made by a tenant or tenants (other than mere tenants-at-will) of immoveable property and the security offered is sufficient to ensure the repayment of the loan, loans may be freely given on such security.

Note.—A tenant's occupancy rights should not be accepted as security unless they are transferable at the tenant's option.

(b) The fact that an applicant is in arrears in respect of land revenue, or of a previous loan, does not necessarily bar the grant to him of a loan under these rules, provided the sanctioning authority is satisfied as to the security offered.

(c) It is for the sanctioning authority to satisfy himself in every case that the security offered, in whatever form, is sufficient to guarantee the repayment of the loan ; and, when such authority is of opinion that security other than land is sufficient there is no objection to such security being accepted.

Encumbrances on land offered as security.

14. Enquiries as to existing encumbrances on land offered as security for the repayment of a loan should not be carried further than is absolutely necessary with due regard to the security for the loan.

Interest.

15. Loans shall not ordinarily be given under these rules unless the applicant is willing to pay simple interest at the rate of one anna in the rupee (i.e., 6¼ per cent.) per annum. If in any case there are exceptional reasons to justify the grant of a loan at a lower rate of interest or without interest, the case should be submitted with the recommendations of the Collector, to the Revenue Commissioner, who will accept or reject any such application as to him may seem expedient ; or in cases of loans in excess of Rs. 1,000 will submit the application with his recommendations for the orders of the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General.

Repayment of loans.

16. Subject to the provisions of rules 17 and 18 the convenience of the borrower should be consulted as far as possible in fixing the instalments by which repayment is to be made. Repayments may be made by yearly or half-yearly instalments, and on dates convenient to the borrower, but the borrower may, if he so chooses, repay by larger instalments or repay the whole amount of his debt at any time.

Date from which repayment should begin.

17. Within reasonable limits, the convenience of the borrower should be consulted as to the date from which repayment should begin, and such date should not precede the date when by the exercise of ordinary care and diligence the profits from the improvement may be expected to cover the payment of the instalment. This period of grace, however, should not without the special sanction of the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General exceed two and a half years in any case, and interest should be charged for the period in question.

Period within which loans should be repaid.

18. The period within which the repayment of the loan is to be completed should not ordinarily exceed twenty years, but this period may, in special cases, with the sanction of the Local Government, be extended, due regard being had to the nature and permanency or otherwise of the improvement effected.

Execution of agreements.

19. When it has been decided to grant or to recommend a loan, steps should forthwith be taken to have the necessary documents executed. The applicant or applicants should be required to execute an agreement in the annexed Form C, Clause 3 of this form should be filled up in cases in which the applicant or applicants hypothecates or hypothecate his or their own property as security; in other cases it should be struck out. If any land belonging to any other person or persons is to be hypothecated, an additional agreement should be executed in the annexed Form D. If personal security of any other person or persons is to be taken the additional agreement should be in the annexed Form E.

Planting of trees along water courses, etc.

20. Whenever possible in granting a loan for the construction of a new, or the repairing of an old Karez, water course, etc., the opportunity should be taken to insert a clause in the agreement (Form C) binding the applicant to plant and maintain a reasonable number of fruit or other trees along its bank.

Payment of loan in instalments.

21. Loans of considerable amount should, as a rule, be made not in lump sums, but in suitable instalments; and when money is so advanced, care should be taken to see that each instalment has been applied to the purpose for which it was given before a further instalment is paid; but the payments of the instalments should be made as promptly as possible so that the progress of work may not be retarded.

Order for payment of loan.

22. The order for the payment of a loan should be made out in the annexed Form F. If the loan is payable in a lump sum, the first and third paragraphs of the order Form F should be filled up. If the loan is payable in instalments, a separate order will be given to the applicant for each instalment. When the first instalment is to be drawn the first and third paragraphs of the form should be filled up; and when a second or subsequent instalment is to be drawn, the first and second paragraphs of the form should be filled in and the third paragraph struck out. Form F should be made over to the borrower, who should present it at the Treasury (or Sub-Treasury) for payment, and on payment the order form should be taken over by the Treasury (or Sub-Treasury) and forwarded as a voucher to the Accounts Department.

Penal interest for non-repayment on due date.

23. Subject to the provisions of Rule 26, if an instalment of principal, or of interest, or of consolidated principal and interest, is not paid when it becomes due, the Collector may, if the delay exceeds one month and shall if it exceeds six months, charge compound interest at a rate not exceeding 6¼ per cent. per annum, on such overdue instalment for the period during which it remains unpaid, provided that, if the default in payment is due to the borrower's inability to pay, and the levy of such compound interest would be productive of hardship, the Collector may recommend that it may be remitted, recording reasons for his recommendation which shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner, who shall pass orders on such recommendation.

Inspection of improvements.

24. Collectors should make arrangements for the periodical inspection of all improvements undertaken with the aid of a loan in order to ensure that the loan is properly applied to the work for which it was granted. In all cases the work should be inspected within a month after the expiration of the time within which the applicant has bound himself in the agreement (Form C) to complete the work.

Penalty for misapplication of loan.

25. If it is proved at any time to the satisfaction of the Collector that any part of a loan has been misapplied, he may, after recording the reasons for his decision, and subject to the control of the Revenue Commissioner, proceed to recover the whole amount of the loan with such interest as may have become due thereon.

Suspension.

26. (a) Suspensions should be readily given when owing to the failure of crops or delay in the completion of the improvement from causes beyond the borrower's control, the payment of instalments would be burdensome.

(b) No interest shall be charged on suspended instalments for the period of suspension.

Effect of suspension on repayment of loan.

(c) Unless the borrower so desires, suspended instalments should not be made repayable in the ensuing year together with the instalments due in that year, but the effect of suspension shall be to postpone for one instalment period the payment of all remaining instalments due on the loan.

Powers of officers to grant suspensions.

(d) Where the amount of the loan does not exceed ₹1,000 suspensions may be sanctioned by the Collector. Where the amount of the loan exceeds ₹1,000 a first suspension may be sanctioned by the Collector, a report being sent to the Revenue Commissioner, whose previous sanction should be obtained before a second or any subsequent suspension of the same instalment is given. The Revenue Commissioner may sanction suspensions of instalments irrespective of the amount of the loan.

Applications for remissions.

27. When any loan or any portion of a loan is found to be irrecoverable, or when for special reasons it appears undesirable to recover any outstanding amount, a special report shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner. It is desirable that the recovery of a loan should take precedence over the recovery of land revenue and it is ordinarily preferable that a remission of land revenue should be recommended rather than of the loan.

Foot-note.—Generally the risk of failure must be borne by the borrower, as this affords the best guarantee that the loan will be judiciously spent, and applications for the remission of outstanding instalments or any part of them will only be considered when it is clearly proved that the work for which the loan was given has failed from causes beyond the borrower's control and when recovery in full would occasion serious hardship.

Power to grant remissions.

28. The Revenue Commissioner may, on sufficient reasons being shown, remit any amount not exceeding Rs. 50. In any case where the amount proposed to be remitted exceeds this sum, the Revenue Commissioner shall take the orders of the Local Government which has power to grant remissions without limit.

Copies of orders sanctioning remissions to be sent to Account Officers.

29. Whenever any loan or any part of a loan is remitted under the foregoing rule, a copy of the order sanctioning such remission shall be at once communicated to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Calcutta, and the Treasury Officer, Quetta.

Forms.

30. The Revenue Commissioner shall regulate the forms of all returns, registers and accounts relating to loans under the Act.

No. 543.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by proviso (1) to section 11 of the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (Act XIX of 1883), as extended to British Baluchistan, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to frame the following rules for the temporary exemption of improvements from assessment to land revenue in cases where the improvement is made with the aid of a loan under the said Act, and consists of the reclamation of waste land or of the irrigation of land assessed at unirrigated rates:—

1. (a) Reclamation of waste land.—When land is reclaimed from waste and is brought under cultivation by any means other than perennial irrigation, no revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of three years.

(b) Improvement by irrigation.—When rain-crop or flood irrigated land has been brought under perennial irrigation, no additional revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of 4 years.

(c) Waste land brought under irrigation.—When waste land is brought under perennial irrigation, no revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of five years.

2. In each of the above cases the period of exemption shall be reckoned from the beginning of the harvest first reaped after the improvement is effected.

3. Nothing in these rules shall be understood as limiting the power of the Local Government in any case to give more liberal terms than those above prescribed. Nor shall these rules be read as affecting any remission of revenue admissible to any person under the terms of any agreement or unexpired settlement.

4. These rules shall come into force from 1st April 1909.

No. 547.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 5 of the Scheduled Districts Act, 1874 (XIV of 1874), and with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to extend section 2 of the Agriculturists' Loans Act, 1884 (XII of 1884), to British Baluchistan.

No. 548.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 2, sub-section (3), of the Agriculturists' Loans Act (XII of 1884) as extended to British Baluchistan, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to extend sections 4, 5 and 6 of the said Act to British Baluchistan.

No. 549.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 4 (1) of the Agriculturists' Loans Act (XII of 1884) as extended to British Baluchistan, the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to make the following rules for the working of the said Act in British Baluchistan.

Draft Rules under the Agriculturists' Loans Act.

Officers empowered to grant loans.

1. Subject to the provisions of these rules, and within the allotment placed at his disposal, the grant of loans (under these rules) shall be within the discretion of the Collector of the district.

Selected officers may be empowered to grant loans.

2. A Collector may empower officers not below the rank of Tahsildar to sanction loans not exceeding in each individual case R100 for the purchase of cattle and R20 for seed; and officers not below the rank of Extra-Assistant Commissioner to sanction loans not exceeding R200 in each individual case for the purchase of cattle and R50 for seed, provided that loans so given shall be debited against the allotment for the district.

Application for loans.

3. Applications from owners and occupiers of arable land for the relief of distress, the purchase of seed or cattle, or for any other purpose not specified in the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, but connected with Agricultural objects may be presented to any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib-Tahsildar. Such applications should usually be in the annexed form A, of which printed copies should be made available to intending borrowers free of charge. When an application is made orally or otherwise than in form A, the officer to whom it is made shall himself record it in the prescribed form or he shall cause it to be so recorded by some responsible subordinate official.

NOTE.—The words "relief of distress" mean relief of distress directly due to a calamity in agriculture, such as the destruction of crops by drought, floods, hail, blight, locusts or insects; loss of cattle by disease; scarcity and the like.

The words "any other purpose not specified in the Land Improvement Loans Act but connected with Agricultural objects" mean any other purpose directly connected with agriculture and its processes.

Enquiry into application and officers by whom enquiry should be made.

4. A local enquiry shall be held at as early a date as possible by the officer entertaining the application, or by such Revenue Officer not below the rank of a Kanungo as may be directed by the officer to whom the application is presented to make such enquiry (for the purpose of ascertaining whether the applicant is in need of the relief applied for).

Report of enquiring officer.

5. The result of the enquiry shall be recorded in the annexed form B (on the reverse of form A), and the report shall then be forwarded through the proper channel to the officer having power to sanction the loan

Power to order further enquiry.

6. Any officer to whom such a report is submitted may, for sufficient reason, cause a further enquiry to be held, before forwarding or recommending or sanctioning the application, but care should be taken that no unnecessary delay is allowed to occur in making such further enquiry.

Amount of Loan.

7. Loans when given should be on such a scale as to render it unnecessary for the borrower to resort elsewhere for supplementary loans in order adequately to supply the needs which have led him to ask for a loan.

Security.

8. The Collector, or any officer empowered by him to give loans under rule 2 may in his discretion require an applicant to furnish security for the repayment of the loan. The loans given under the Agriculturists' Loans Act being as a rule small, it will generally be unnecessary to demand any security other than personal security, but officers who are entrusted with the working of these rules should endeavour to encourage the system by which members of a village community, or a group of agriculturists, become jointly and severally responsible for the repayment of a loan required by an individual member.

Interest.

9. Loans shall not ordinarily be given under these rules, unless the applicant is willing to pay simple interest at the rate of one anna in the rupee, i.e., 6¼ per cent. per annum. If in any case there are exceptional reasons to justify the grant of a loan at a lower rate of interest than that prescribed, or without interest, the case should be submitted, with the recommendations of the Collector, to the Revenue Commissioner, who will when the loan does not exceed 1,000 rupees accept or reject any such application as may to him seem expedient.

Repayment of Loans.

10. The convenience of the borrower should be consulted as far as possible in fixing the instalments by which repayment is to be made. The borrower should in ordinary circumstances be expected to repay a loan taken for the purchase of seed from the proceeds of the crop produced by the seed and in the case of a loan taken for the purchase of plough cattle to repay it within two years. The repayment of the whole amount of the debt should in no case take longer than ten years.

Option of borrower to repay before due date.

11. Whatever dates may be fixed for the repayment of a loan, the borrower may, if he so wishes, repay the amount due by him, by larger instalments or repay the whole amount due by him at one time.

Payment of loan and executionsof agreements.

12. When it has been decided to grant or to recommend a loan, steps should forthwith be taken to have the necessary documents executed. The applicant or applicants should be required to execute an agreement in the annexed form C. Clause 3 of this form should be filled up in cases in which the applicant or applicants hypothecates or hypothecate his or their own property as security; in other cases it should be struck out. If a third party becomes security an additional bond should be executed in the annexed form D or E, according as the surety is a village community or a group of agriculturists (see rule 8) or not, or in the annexed form F, where the security offered is immoveable property. After the necessary documents have been executed the officer having authority to sanction the loan shall give an order in the annexed form G for the payment of the amount of the loan.

N.B.—In case of loans under the Agriculturists' Loans Act all securities besides the applicant's personal security are optional (see rule 8).

Grants of loans in times of scarcity or famine and method of payment.

13. When scarcity or famine is apprehended the Collector may authorise selected officers, not below the rank of Naib-Tahsildar, to draw, on abstract bills, lump sums (the amount of which should in each case be specified) for distribution as loans under these rules. At such times enquiries should be made well in advance as to probable requirements so that arrangements may be made for the immediate disbursement of money when it is actually required. Loans may be granted in villages on the receipts of the borrowers subject to the condition that each agrees to pay interest at the prescribed rate. Receipts should be taken on the spot at the time that the amount of each loan is paid, and each receipt should be signed by at least two villagers as witnesses. The disbursing officer shall also observe the following procedure:—

(1) He shall not draw a second abstract bill without producing a detailed bill to account for the amounts already disbursed from the last advance taken by him, any balance being at the same time refunded into the Treasury or accounted for as prescribed below.

The balance need not be refunded on each occasion on which a detailed bill is sent to the Treasury. If the disbursing officer foresees that his advance will not be sufficient to meet the probable demands, he may, before his advance is exhausted, subject to the condition that funds have been placed at his disposal, prepare another abstract bill for a further advance and send it to the Treasury with the detailed bill in which the unexpended balance of the first advance should be shown as refunded, and such balance will be deducted at the Treasury from the amount of the second abstract bill.

(2) The submission of the detailed bill should in no case be delayed beyond the end of the month following that in which the advance was drawn from the Treasury.

(3) At the foot of each detailed bill the disbursing officer shall certify that the amount of each advance was duly sanctioned by him and actually paid in his presence, and that the requisite receipt has in each case been taken.

Levy of penal interest.

14. Subject to the provisions of rule 16 if an instalment of principal or of interest or of consolidated principal and interest is not paid when it becomes due, the Collector may, if the delay exceed one month, and shall if it exceeds six months, charge compound interest at a rate not exceeding 6¼ per cent. per annum on such overdue instalment for the period during which it remains unpaid, provided that if the default in payment is due to the borrower's inability to pay and the levy of such compound interest would be productive of hardship, the Collector may recommend that it may be remitted, recording reasons for his recommendation which shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner who shall pass orders on such recommendation.

Obligation on the Collector to see that loans are not misapplied, and penalty for misapplication.

15. In the case of a loan granted for any purpose other than the "relief of distress," the Collector should satisfy himself, within a month from the date of the payment of such loans, that the money has been properly applied; and if it is proved to his satisfaction that any portion of the loan has been misapplied, he may, after recording in writing the grounds for his decision, proceed to recover at once the whole amount of the loan with such interest as may have become due thereon.

Suspensions.

16. (a) Suspension should be readily given when, owing to the failure of crops or loss of cattle from causes beyond the borrower's control, the repayment of a loan, or of an instalment, would be burdensome.

Interest on suspended instalments.

(b) No interest shall be charged on suspended instalments for the period of suspension.

Effect of suspension on repayment of loans.

(c) Unless the borrower so desires suspended instalments should not be made repayable in the ensuing year together with the instalments due in that year, but the effect of suspension shall be to postpone for one instalment period the payment of all remaining instalments due on the advance.

(d) Suspensions under these rules may be sanctioned by a Collector.

Power of Collectors to grant suspension. Remissions.

17. It is desirable that the recovery of a loan should take precedence over the recovery of land revenue and it is ordinarily preferable that a remission of land revenue should be recommended rather than of the loan. When, however, any loan or any portion of a loan is found to be irrecoverable, or when for special reasons it appears undesirable to recover any outstanding amount, a special report shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner. The Revenue Commissioner may, on sufficient reasons being shown, remit any amount not exceeding Rs. 500. In any case where the amount proposed to be remitted exceeds this sum, the Revenue Commissioner shall take the orders of the Local Government, which has power to grant remissions without limit.

Copies of orders sanctioning remissions to be sent to account officers.

18. Whenever any loan or any part of a loan is remitted under the foregoing rule a copy of the order sanctioning such remissions shall be at once communicated to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Calcutta, and the Treasury Officer, Quetta.

Forms.

19. The Revenue Commissioner shall regulate the forms of all returns, registers and accounts relating to loans under these rules.

THE HON'BLE THE AGENT TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN BALUCHISTAN.

NOTIFICATION.

The 26th February 1909.

No. 512.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 59, sub-section (5) of the Prisons Act, 1894 (IX of 1894), as applied to the territories administered by the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General in Baluchistan as such Agent and with the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor-General is pleased to make the following rules to regulate the shortening of sentences by the grant of remission :—

1. These rules shall come into force with effect from the first March 1909.

In these rules,—

(a) "prisoner" includes a person committed to prison in default of furnishing security to keep the peace or be of good behaviour ;

(b) " class 1 prisoner " means a thug, a robber by administration of poisonous drugs or a professional, hereditary or specially dangerous criminal convicted of heinous organised crime, such as dacoity :

(c) " class 2 prisoner " means a dacoit or other person convicted of heinous organised crime, not being a professional, hereditary, or specially dangerous criminal :

(d) " class 3 prisoner " means a prisoner other than a class 1 or class 2 prisoner :

(e) " sentence " means a sentence as finally fixed on appeal, revision or otherwise, and includes an aggregate of more sentences than one and an order of committal to prison in default of furnishing security to keep the peace or be of good behaviour :

(f) " life convict " means—

(i) a class 1 or class 2 prisoner whose sentence amounts to twenty-five years' imprisonment : or

(ii) a class 3 prisoner whose sentence amounts to twenty years' imprisonment.

2. No remission shall be earned in respect of any sentence of transportation or imprisonment under section 2 of the Frontier Murderous Outrages Regulation, 1901 (IV of 1901), passed on a person above the age of fifteen years.

3. No ordinary remission shall be earned in the following cases, namely :—

(1) in respect of any sentence of imprisonment amounting, exclusive of any sentence passed in default of payment of fine, to less than one year ;

(2) in respect of any sentence of simple imprisonment except for any continuous period not being less than one month during which the prisoner labours voluntarily ;

(3) in respect of any sentence passed on a prisoner for an offence committed after admission to jail under section 147, 148, 152 or 224 of the Indian Penal Code or section 52 of the Prisons Act, 1894.

4. The Superintendent may, with the previous sanction of the Inspector General re-admit to the remission system any prisoner who has been removed therefrom under rules framed under section 59, clause (3), of the Act. Such a prisoner shall earn remission under these rules from the commencement of the month following such re-admission.

5. Ordinary remission shall be awarded on the following scale :—

(a) one day per month for thoroughly good conduct and scrupulous attention to all prison regulations ;

(b) two days per month for industry and the due performance of the daily task imposed.

Explanation.—A prisoner who by reason of being at Court, in hospital, in transit from one jail to another, or in an invalid gang which does not perform daily labour, or for any two or more of these reasons combined, is absent from work for the period of one whole calendar month, shall be debarred from earning remission for that month under clause (b), but remission under clause (a) shall be awarded according to the prisoner's conduct during the time he has actually been present in jail.

6. In lieu of the remission allowed under rule 6, convict warders shall receive eight days' ordinary remission per month, convict overseers six days per month and convict night watchmen four days per month.

7. Subject to the provisions of rule 5, remission under rule 6 shall be calculated from the first day of the calendar month next following the date of the prisoner's sentence ; any prisoner who, after having been released on bail or because his sentence has been temporarily suspended is afterwards readmitted to jail shall be brought under the remission system on the first day of the calendar month next following his re-admission, but shall be credited on his return to jail with any remission on which he may have earned previous to his release on bail or the suspension of his sentence. Remission under rule 7 shall be calculated from the first day of the next calendar month following the appointment of the prisoner as convict warder, convict overseer or convict night watchman.

8. Prisoners employed on prison services, such as cooks and sweepers, who work on Sundays and holidays, may be awarded two days' ordinary remission per quarter in addition to any other remission earned under these rules.

9. Any prisoner eligible for remission under these rules who, for a period of one year reckoned from the first day of the quarter following the date of his sentence or the date on which he was last punished for a prison offence, has committed no prison offence whatever, shall be awarded fifteen days' ordinary remission in addition to any other remission earned under these rules.

10. Ordinary remission shall be awarded by the Superintendent or, subject to his control and supervision and to the provisions of rule 12, by the Deputy Superintendent, Jailer, Deputy Jailer or any other officer specially empowered in that behalf by him.

11. An officer awarding ordinary remission shall, before making the award, consult the prisoner's history ticket in which every offence proved against the prisoner must be carefully recorded.

If a prisoner has not been punished during the quarter otherwise than by a formal warning, he shall be awarded the full ordinary remission for that quarter under rule 6, or, if he is a convict officer, under rule 7.

If a prisoner has been punished during the quarter otherwise than by a formal warning, the case shall be placed before the Superintendent, who, after considering the punishment or punishments awarded, shall decide what amount of remission shall be granted under rule 6 or, if the convict is a convict officer, under rule 7. All remissions recorded on the prisoner's history ticket shall be entered quarterly on the remission sheet (or card).

12. The award of ordinary remission shall be made, as nearly as possible, on 1st January, 1st April, 1st July and 1st October, and the amount shall be intimated to the prisoner and recorded on his history ticket. Remission granted to a prisoner under rule 10 shall be recorded on his history ticket as soon as possible after it is awarded.

13. No prisoner shall receive ordinary remission for the calendar month in which he is released.

14. Special remission may be given to any prisoner other than a prisoner undergoing a sentence referred to in rule 3 for special services, as for example :—

(1) assisting in detecting or preventing breaches of prison discipline or regulations ;

(2) success in teaching handicrafts ;

(3) special excellence in, or greatly increased outturn of, work of good quality ;

(4) protecting an officer of the prison from attack ;

(5) assisting an officer of the prison in the case of outbreak, fire or similar emergency ;

(6) economy in wearing clothes.

15. Special remission may be awarded—

(a) by the Superintendent to an amount not exceeding thirty days in one year ;

(b) by the Inspector General or the local Government to an amount not exceeding sixty days in one year.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule years shall be reckoned from the date of sentence, and any fraction of a year shall be reckoned as a complete year.

16. An award of special remission shall be entered on the history ticket of the prisoner as soon as possible after it is made, and the reasons for every award of special remission by a Superintendent shall be briefly recorded.

17. The total remission awarded to a prisoner under all these rules shall not, without the special sanction of the local Government, exceed one-fourth part of his sentence.

18. In calculating the date of release of a prisoner the number of days of remission earned shall be converted into months and days, at the rate of thirty days to each month.

19. When a life-convict being a class 1 prisoner has earned such remission as entitles him to release, the Superintendent shall report accordingly to the local Government with a view to the passing of orders under section 401 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898.

20. Save as provided by rule 20, when a prisoner has earned such remission as entitles him to release, the Superintendent shall release him.

21. When a prisoner is released under rule 21, the total amount of remission earned by him shall be endorsed on his warrant and the endorsement shall be signed by the Superintendent.

22. When a prisoner is transferred to another jail, the total amount of remission earned by him up to the end of the preceding quarter shall be endorsed on his warrant and entered on his history ticket, these entries being signed by the Superintendent.

The receiving jail shall be responsible that the above information is duly obtained. Each jail at which a prisoner serves a portion of his sentence shall be held responsible for the correct calculation of the remission earned in that jail.

23. Remission sheets (or cards) shall be retained in the office of a jail for a period of one year after the release of the prisoner to whom they relate or his transfer to another jail.

NOTE.—(To rule 2). The case of all life-convicts and of all prisoners sentenced to more than 14 years' imprisonment or transportation or to transportation and imprisonment for terms exceeding in the aggregate 14 years shall, when the term of imprisonment undergone together with any remission earned under the rules amounts to 14 years, be submitted for the orders of the local Government in accordance with the instructions contained in the Home Department Resolution No. 159-67 (Jails), dated the 6th September 1905.

NOTE.—(To rule 4 (1). The intention of this rule is that if a prisoner's sentence or total of sentences is reduced on appeal to less than one year he shall cease to be eligible for ordinary remission under these rules and any remission that he may have earned prior to the reduction of his sentence or sentences shall be forfeited. See in this connection the definition of 'sentence' in rule 2 (e).

NOTE.—(To rules 20 and 21):—The intention of these rules is (a) that the case of class (1) life-convicts should be submitted for the special orders of the local Government in each case as to whether release should be granted and if so, on what conditions, (b) that class (2) convicts and term-convicts of class (1) should be released without the special orders of the local Government in each case but subject to such general orders as to release and such general conditions as to police surveillance during the period of sentence remitted, as the local Government may prescribe. (c) Class (3) prisoners should be released unconditionally on expiry of their sentence, less the period of remission earned.

N. B.—The above notes should not be regarded as part of the statutory rules; they have merely been inserted for convenience of reference and with the object of assisting officers to interpret the rules.

No. 544.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by [Section 1 (2) of the Land Improvement Loans Act (XIX of 1883) as applied to the territories administered by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan as such Agent, the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, is pleased to appoint the 1st April 1909 as the date on which the said Act shall come into force in the above mentioned territories.

No. 545.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by Section 10 of the Land Improvement Loans Act (XIX of 1883) as applied to the territories administered by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan, as such Agent, the Agent to the Governer General in Baluchistan is pleased to make the following rules for the working of the said Act in the above mentioned territories :—

Draft rules under the Land Improvement Loans Act.

Annual allotment and its distribution.

1. On receipt of sanction to the annual estimate of Imperial advances and loans the Revenue Commissioner will distribute the allotment for the Baluchistan Agency.

Reserve with Revenue Commissioner and power to transfer funds.

2. In making the distribution required by the foregoing rule, the Revenue Commissioner will retain a small reserve to meet applications from District Officers for extra grants. The Revenue Commissioner is authorised to redistribute District allotments, as occasion may require.

Application for additional grant over and above the annual allotment.

3. If in any year an additional grant, over and above the total allotment for the year, should be required the Revenue Commissioner will submit an application for the orders of the Local Government.

Officers authorised to grant loans.

4. (a) Subject to the provisions of these rules and within the limits of the funds alloted to him for the purpose, the Collector of a District may grant loans not exceeding ₹1,000 for any one improvement as defined in section 4 of the Act. Applications for loans in excess of ₹1,000 for any one work shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner, who is authorised to sanction the grant of loans not exceeding ₹3,000 in any one case. Applications for loans in excess of ₹3,000 shall be submitted with the Revenue Commissioner's recommendations for the orders of the Local Government.

(b) The Collector may, in his discretion, allot funds from his District allotment to any sub-divisional officer or officers of his District, and may empower such officer or officers to grant loans up to a limit not exceeding ₹500 for any one work within the limits of the funds so allotted.

Applications for loans.

5. Applications for loans may be presented to any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar. Such applications should usually be in the annexed form A, of which printed copies should be made available to intending borrowers free of charge. When an application for a loan is made orally, or otherwise than in form A, the officer to whom it is made shall himself record it in the prescribed form or he shall cause it to be so recorded by some responsible subordinate official.

Enquiry into application and officers by whom enquiry should be made.

6. A local enquiry shall be held at as early a date as possible, by the officer entertaining the application, or by such Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar as may be called upon by him to make such enquiry, into the circumstances of the applicant, the sufficiency of the security offered and such other particulars as may be necessary for determining whether or not it is desirable to grant the loan.

Enquiry to be made by Kanungo in special cases.

7. Where the amount of the loan applied for does not exceed ₹500 and the local enquiry cannot be made within a reasonable time by a Tahsildar or a Naib Tahsildar without detriment to his other work, the Sub-Divisional Officer or in his absence the Tahsildar may in his discretion cause the requisite enquiry to be made by a Kanungo of the Tahsil.

Report giving result of enquiry.

8. The result of the enquiry shall be recorded in form B (on the reverse of form A) and the papers shall then be forwarded, through the proper channel, to the officer having authority to sanction the loan.

Power to order further enquiry.

9. The officer to whom such a report in submitted may for sufficient reason cause a further enquiry to be held before forwarding or recommending for sanctioning the application, but care should be taken that no unnecessary delay is allowed to occur in making such further enquiry. No application shall be rejected except by order of the officer competent to sanction it, or (in the case of the loans requiring the sanction of the Revenue Commissioner or the Agent to the Governor General) of the Collector.

Conditions to be complied with before loans are given.

10. No loan shall be granted unless enquiries show that the conditions of section 4, clause (1) of the Act are fulfilled, and that the security offered is good and sufficient.

Amount of loan to be sufficient to cover total outlay.

11. In dealing with applications for loans generally and more particularly for loans for constructing or improving Karezes or water courses or for carrying out other irrigation schemes, it is of importance that a close estimate should be made of the total outlay required to complete the project, and that the amount of the loan should be sufficient to cover so much of the total outlay as the borrower is unable to provide from his own capital or to obtain on reasonable terms from other sources.

Karezes.

12. The construction and extension of Karezes are works of a very speculative nature, and no loans should ordinarily be given in such cases until the probability of the success of the project has been ascertained by sinking trial wells and taking approximate levels. Where it is conveniently possible, and in all cases where the outlay is large, the Irrigation Officer in Baluchistan or some local Public Works Department Officer should be asked to examine and report on the project. The grant or refusal of the loan should mainly depend on such officer's report. When such report is unfavourable, no loan should be given without the special sanction of the Revenue Commissioner.

Security for loan.

13. (a) Security as hereinafter prescribed shall be taken before any loan is made under these rules.

(1) Where the applicant's interest in the land or water to be improved, or in both, is apart from the improvement proposed in itself of sufficient value to cover the amount of the loan, the sanctioning officer may in his discretion dispense with further security.

(2) Where such interest is not in itself of sufficient value to cover the amount of the loan, further security should be taken, which may consist of:—

(i) The applicant's interest in other land or water or both.

(ii) Land or water, or both, belonging to any other person or persons who is or are willing to become the applicant's surety or sureties.

(iii) Personal security.

(3) (a) Where the application for a loan is made by a tenant or tenants (other than mere tenants-at-will) of immovable property and the security offered is sufficient to ensure the repayment of the loan, loans may be freely given on such security.

Note.—A tenants occupancy rights should not be accepted as security unless they are transferable at the tenant's option.

(b) The fact that an applicant is in arrears in respect of Land Revenue, or of a previous loan, does not necessarily bar the grant to him of a loan under these rules, provided the sanctioning authority is satisfied as to the security offered.

(c) It is for the sanctioning authority to satisfy himself in every case that the security offered, in whatever form, is sufficient to guarantee the repayment of the loan; and when such authority is of opinion that security other than land is sufficient there is no objection to such security being accepted.

Encumbrances on land offered as security.

14. Enquiries as to existing encumbrances on land offered as security for the repayment of a loan should not be carried further than is absolutely necessary with due regard to the security for the loan.

Interest.

15. Loans shall not ordinarily be given under these rules unless the applicant is willing to pay simple interest at the rate of one anna in the rupee (i.e., 6¼ per cent.) per annum. If in any case there are exceptional reasons to justify the grant of a loan at a lower rate of interest or without interest, the case should be submitted, with the recommendation of the Collector, to the Revenue Commissioner who will accept or reject any such application as to him may seem expedient or in cases of loans in excess of Rs1,000 will submit the application with his recommendations for the orders of the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General.

Repayments of loans.

16. Subject to the provisions of rules 17 and 18 the convenience of the borrower should be consulted as far as possible in fixing the instalments by which repayment is to be made. Repayments may be made by yearly or half-yearly instalments, and on dates convenient to the borrower, but the borrower may, if he so chooses, repay by larger instalments or repay the whole amount of his debt at any time.

Date from which payment should begin.

17. Within reasonable limits, the convenience of the borrower should be consulted as to the date from which repayment should begin, and such date should not precede the date when by the exercise of ordinary care and diligence the profits from the improvement may be expected to cover the payment of the instalment. This period of grace, however, should not, without the special sanction of the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General, exceed two and a half years in any case, and interest should be charged for the period in question.

Period within which loans should be repaid.

18. The period within which the repayment of the loan is to be completed should not ordinarily exceed twenty years, but this period may, in special cases, with the sanction of the Local Government, be extended, due regard being had to the nature and permanency or otherwise of the improvement effected.

Execution of agreement.

19. When it has been decided to grant or to recommend a loan, steps should forthwith be taken to have necessary documents executed. The applicant or applicants should be required to execute an agreement in the annexed form C. Clause 3 of this form should be filled up in cases in which the applicant or applicants hypothicate or hypothicates his or their own property as security : in other cases, it should be struck out. If any land belonging to any other person or persons is to be hypothicated, an additional agreement should be executed in the annexed form D. If personal security of any other person or persons is to be taken the additional agreement should be in the anexed form E.

Planting of trees along water courses, etc.

20. Whenever possible in granting a loan for the construction of a new, or the repairing of an old Karez, water course, etc., the opportunity should be taken to insert a clause in the agreement (Form C) binding the applicant to plant and maintain a reasonable number of fruit or other trees along its bank.

Payment of loan in instalments.

21. Loans of considerable amount should, as a rule, be made not in lump sums, but in suitable instalments ; and when money is so advanced, care should be taken to see that each instalment has been applied to the purpose for which it was given before a further instalment is paid ; but the payment of the instalment should be made as promptly as possible so that the progress of work may not be retarded.

Order for payment of loans.

22. The order for the payment of a loan should be made out in the annexed form F. If the loan is payable in a lump sum the first and third paragraphs of the order form F should be filled up. If the loan is payable in instalments a separate order will be given to the applicant for each instalment. When the first instalment is to be drawn the first and third paragraphs of the form should be filled up; and when a second or subsequent instalment is to be drawn the first and second paragraphs of the form should be filled in and the third paragraph struck out. Form F should be made over to the borrower, who should present it at the Treasury (or sub-Treasury) for payment, and on payment the order form should be taken over by the Treasury (or sub-Treasury) and forwarded as a voucher to the Accounts Department.

Penal interest for non-repayment on due date.

23. Subject to the provisions of Rule 26 if an instalment of principal, or of interest or of consolidated principal and interest, is not paid when it becomes due, the Collector may, if the delay exceeds one month and shall, if it exceeds six months, charge compound interest at a rate not exceeding 6¼ per cent per annum, on such overdue instalment for the period during which it remains unpaid : provided that, if the default in payment is due to the borrower's inability to pay, and the levy of such compound interest would be productive of hardship, the Collector may recommend that it may be remitted, recording reasons for his recommendation which shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner, who shall pass orders on such recommendation.

Inspection of Improvements.

24. Collectors should make arrangements for the periodical inspection of all improvements undertaken with the aid of a loan in order to ensure that the loan is properly applied to the work for which it was granted. In all cases the work should be inspected within a month after the expiration of the time within which the applicant has bound himself in the agreement (Form C) to complete the work.

Penalty for misapplication of loan.

25. If it is proved at any time to the satisfaction of the Collector that any part of a loan has been misapplied, he may, after recording the reasons for his decision, and subject to the control of the Revenue Commissioner, proceed to recover the whole amount of the loan with such interest as may have become due thereon.

Suspensions.

26. (a) Suspensions should be readily given when, owing to the failure of crops or delay in the completion of the improvement from causes beyond the borrower's control, the payment of instalments would be burdensome.

(b) No interest shall be charged on suspended instalments for the period of suspension.

Effect of suspens on on repayment of loan.

(c) Unless the borrower so desires, suspended instalments should not be made repayable in the ensuing year together with the instalments due in that year, but the effect of suspension shall be to postpone for one instalment period the payment of all remaining instalments due on the loan.

Powers of officers to grant suspensions.

(d) Where the amount of the loan does not exceed ₹1,000 suspensions may be sanctioned by the Collector. Where the amount of the loan exceeds ₹1,000 a first suspension may be sanctioned by the Collector, a report being sent to the Revenue Commissioner, whose previous sanction should be obtained before a second or any subsequent suspension of the same instalment is given. The Revenue Commissioner may sanction suspensions of instalments irrespective of the amount of the loan.

Applications for remissions.

27. When any loan or any portion of a loan is found to be irrecoverable, or when for special reasons it appears undesirable, to recover any outstanding amount, a special report shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner. It is desirable that the recovery of a loan should take precedence over the recovery of land revenue and it is ordinarily preferable that a remission of land revenue should be recommended rather than of the loan.

Foot-note.—Generally the risk of failure must be borne by the borrower, as this affords the best guarantee that the loan will be judiciously spent, and applications for the remission of outstanding instalments or any part of them will only be considered when it is clearly proved that the work for which the loan was given has failed from causes beyond the borrower's control and recovery in full would occasion serious hardship.

Power to grant remissions.

28. The Revenue Commissioner may, on sufficient reasons being shown, remit any amount not exceeding R500. In any case where the amount proposed to be remitted exceeds this sum, the Revenue Commissioner shall take the orders of the Local Government which has power to grant remissions without limit.

Copies of orders sanctioning remissions to be sent to Account Officer.

29. Whenever any loan or any part of a loan, is remitted under the foregoing rule, a copy of the order sanctioning such remission shall be at once communicated to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Calcutta, and the Treasury Officer, Quetta.

Forms.

30. The Revenue Commissioner shall regulate the forms of all returns, registers and accounts relating to loans under the Act.

No. 546.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by proviso (1) to Section 11 of the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883 (Act XIX of 1883), as applied to the territories administered by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan as such Agent, the Hon'ble the Agent to the Governor General is pleased to frame the following rules for the temporary exemption of improvements from assessment to land revenue in cases where the improvement is made with the aid of a loan under the said Act, and consists of the reclamation of waste land or of the irrigation of land assessed at unirrigated rates :—

1. (a) Reclamation of waste land.—When land is reclaimed from waste and is brought under cultivation by any means other than perennial irrigation, no revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of three years.

   (b) Improvement by irrigation.—When rain-crop or flood-irrigated land has been brought under perennial irrigation no additional revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of four years.

   (c) Waste land brought under irrigation.—When waste land is brought under perennial irrigation no revenue shall be assessed on it for a period of five years.

2. In each of the above cases the period of exemption shall be reckoned from the beginning of the harvest first reaped after the improvement is effected.

3. Nothing in these rules shall be understood as limiting the powers of the Local Government in any case to give more liberal terms than those above prescribed. Nor shall these rules be read as affecting any remission of revenue admissible to any person under the terms of any agreement or unexpired settlement.

4. These rules shall come into force from 1st April 1909.

No. 550.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 2, sub-section (3) of the Agriculturists Loans Act (XII of 1884) as applied to the territories administered by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan as such Agent, the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan is pleased to extend to the above mentioned territories sections 4, 5 and 6 of the said Act.

No. 551.—In exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 4 (1) of the Agriculturists Loans Act (XII of 1884) as applied to the territories administered by the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan as such Agent, the Agent to the Governor General in Baluchistan is pleased to make the following rules for the working of the said Act in the abovementioned territories—

Draft Rules under the Agriculturists Loans Act.

Officers empowered to grant loans.

1. Subject to the provisions of these rules, and within the allotment placed at his disposal, the grant of loans (under these rules) shall be within the discretion of the Collector of the District.

Selected Officers may be empowered to grant loans.

2. A Collector may empower Officers not below the rank of Tahsildar to sanction loans not exceeding in each individual case R100 for the purchase of cattle and R20 for seed and Officers not below the rank of Extra Assistant Commissioner to sanction loans not exceeding R200 in each individual case for the purchase of cattle and R50 for seed, provided that loans so given shall be debited against the allotment for the District.

Application for loans.

3. Applications from owners and occupiers of arable land for the relief of distress, the purchase of seed or cattle, or for any other purpose not specified in the Land Improvement Loans Act, 1883, but connected with Agricultural objects may be presented to any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar. Such applications should usually be in the annexed form A of which printed copies should be made available to intending borrowers free of charge. When an application is made orally or otherwise than in form A, the Officer to whom it is made shall himself record it in the prescribed form or he shall cause it to be so recorded by some responsible subordinate official.

Note.—The words "relief of distress" mean relief of distress directly due to a calamity in agriculture, such as the destruction of crops by drought, floods, hail, blight, locusts or insects; loss of cattle by disease, scarcity and the like.

The words "any other purpose not specified in the Land Improvement Loans Act but connected with agricultural objects" mean any other purpose directly connected with agriculture and its processes.

Enquiry into application and officers by whom enquiry should be made.

4. A local enquiry shall be held at as early a date as possible by the Officer entertaining the application, or by such Revenue Officer not below the rank of a Kanungo as may be directed by the Officer to whom the application is presented to make such enquiry (for the purpose of ascertaining whether the applicant is in need of the relief applied for).

Report of enquiring officer.

5. The result of the enquiry shall be recorded in the annexed Form B (on the reverse of Form A), and the report shall then be forwarded through the proper channel to the Officer having power to sanction the loan.

Power to order further enquiry.

6. Any Officer to whom such a report is submitted may, for sufficient reason, cause a further enquiry to be held, before forwarding or recommending or sanctioning the application but care should be taken that no unnecessary delay is allowed to occur in making such further enquiry.

Amount of loan.

7. Loans when given should be on such a scale as to render it unnecessary for the borrower to resort elsewhere for supplementary loans in order adequately to supply the needs which have led him to ask for a loan.

Security.

8. The Collector, or any Officer empowered by him to give loans under Rule 2 may in his discretion require an applicant to furnish security for the repayment of the loan. The loans given under the Agriculturists' Loans Act being as a rule small, it will generally be unnecessary to demand any security other than personal security, but officers who are entrusted with the working of these rules should endeavour to encourage the system by which members of a village, community, or a group of agriculturists, become jointly and severally responsible for the repayment of a loan required by an individual member.

Interest.

9. Loans shall not ordinarily be given under these rules, unless the applicant is willing to pay simple interest at the rate of one anna in the rupee, i. e., 6¼% per annum. If in any case there are exceptional reasons to justify the grant of a loan at a lower rate of interest than that prescribed, or without interest, the case should be submitted, with the recommendations of the Collector, to the Revenue Commissioner, who will when the loan does not exceed 1,000 rupees accept or reject any such application as may to him seem expedient.

Repayment of loans.

10. The convenience of the borrower should be consulted as far as possible in fixing the instalments by which repayment is to be made. The borrower should, in ordinary circumstances, be expected to repay a loan taken for the purchase of seed from the proceeds of the crop produced by the seed and in the case of a loan taken for the purchase of plough cattle to repay it within two years. The repayment of the whole amount of the debt should in no case take longer than ten years.

Option of borrower to repay before due date.

11. Whatever dates may be fixed for the repayment of a loan, the borrower may, if he so wishes, repay the amount due by him, by larger instalments or repay the whole amount due by him at one time.

Payment of loan and executions of agreements.

12. When it has been decided to grant or to recommend a loan, steps should forthwith be taken to have the necessary documents executed. The applicant or applicants should be required to execute an agreement in the annexed form C., clause 3 of this form should be filled up in cases in which the applicant or applicants hypothecates or hypothecate his or their own property as security; in other cases it should be struck out. If a third party becomes security an additional bond should be executed in the annexed form D. or E. according as the surety is a village community or a group of agriculturists (see rule 8) or not, or in the annexed form F. where the security offered is immoveable property. After the necessary documents have been executed the officer having authority to sanction the loan shall give an order in the annexed form G. for the payment of the amount of the loan.

N. B.—In case of loans under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, all securities besides the applicants' personal security are optional (see rule 8).

Grants of Loans in times of scarcity or famine and method of payment.

13. When scarcity or famine is apprehended the Collector may authorise selected officers not below the rank of Naib Tahsildar to draw, on abstract bills, lump sums (the amount of which should in each case be specified) for distribution as loans under these rules. At such times enquiries should be made well in advance as to probable requirements so that arrangements may be made for the immediate disbursement of money when it is actually required. Loans may be granted in villages on the receipts of the borrowers subject to the condition that each agrees to pay interest at the prescribed rate. Receipts should be taken on the spot at the time that the amount of each loan is paid, and each receipt should be signed by at least two villagers as witnesses. The disbursing officer shall also observe the following procedure:—

(1) He shall not draw a second abstract bill without producing a detailed bill to account for the amounts already disbursed from the last advance taken by him, any balance being at the same time refunded into the Treasury or accounted for as prescribed below:—

The balance need not be refunded on each occasion on which a detailed bill is sent to the Treasury. If the disbursing officer foresees that his advance will not be sufficient to meet the probable demands, he may before his advance is exhausted, subject to the condition that funds have been placed at his disposal prepare an other abstract bill for a further advance and send it to the Treasury with the detailed bill in which the unexpended balance of the first advance should be shown as refunded and such balance will be deducted at the Treasury from the amount of the second abstract bill.

(2) The submission of the detailed bill should in no case be delayed beyond the end of the month following that in which the advance was drawn from the Treasury.

(3) At the foot of each detailed bill the disbursing officer shall certify that the amount of each advance was duly sanctioned by him and actually paid in his presence, and that the requisite receipt has in each case been taken.

Levy of penal interest.

14. Subject to the provisions of rule 16 if an instalment of principal or of interest or of consolidated principal and interest is not paid when it becomes due, the Collector may, if the delay exceed one month, and shall if it exceeds six months charge compound interest at a rate not exceeding 6¼ per cent. per annum on such overdue instalment for the period during which it remains unpaid:

Provided that if the default in payment is due to the borrower's inability to pay and the levy of such compound interest would be productive of hardship, the Collector may recommend that it may be remitted, recording reasons for his recommendation which shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner who shall pass orders on such recommendation.

Obligation on the Collector to see that loans are not misapplied and penalty for misapplication.

15. In the case of a loan granted for any purpose other than the "relief of distress" the Collector should satisfy himself within a month from the date of the payment of such loans, that the money has been properly applied; and if it is proved to his satisfaction that any portion of the loan has been misapplied he may after recording in writing the grounds for his decision, proceed to recover at once the whole amount of the loan with such interest as may have become due thereon.

Suspensions.

16. (a) Suspensions should be readily given when, owing to the failure of crops or loss of cattle from causes beyond the borrower's control, the repayment of a loan, or of an instalment, would be burdensome.

Interest on suspended instalments.

(b) No interest shall be charged on suspended instalments for the period of suspension.

Effect of Suspension on repayment of loans.

(c) Unless the borrower so desires suspended instalments should not be made repayable in the ensuing year together with the instalments due in that year, but the effect of suspension shall be to postpone for one instalment period the payment of all remaining instalments due on the advance.

Power of Collectors to grant suspension. Remissions.

(d) Suspensions under these rules may be sanctioned by a Collector.

17. It is desirable that the recovery of a loan should take precedence over the recovery of land revenue and it is ordinarily preferable that a remission of land revenue should be recommended rather than of the loan. When, however, any loan or any portion of a loan is found to be irrecoverable, or when for special reasons it appears undesirable to recover any outstanding amount, a special report shall be submitted to the Revenue Commissioner. The Revenue Commissioner may on sufficient reasons being shown remit any amount not exceeding Rs500. In any case where the amount proposed to be remitted exceeds this sum, the Revenue Commissioner shall take the orders of the Local Government, which has power to grant remissions without limit.

Copies of orders sanctioning remissions to be sent to account officers. Forms.

18. Whenever any loan or any part of a loan is remitted under the foregoing rule a copy of the order sanctioning such remissions shall be at once communicated to the Comptroller, India Treasuries, Calcutta, and the Treasury Officer, Quetta.

19. The Revenue Commissioner shall regulate the forms of all returns, registers and accounts relating to loans under these rules.

By order,

Assistant to the Agent to the Governor-General in Rajputana, Criminal Branch, and Superintendent-General, Railway Police, Rajputana.

THE HONOURABLE THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER OF BRITISH BALUCHISTAN.

NOTIFICATION.

Quetta, the 11th March 1909.

No. 751.—In exercise of the powers conferred by Section 65 of the Excise Act, 1896, (XII of 1896), the Honourable the Chief Commissioner of British Baluchistan is pleased to make the following rules for the grant of licenses for the sale, wholesale and retail, of foreign spirits and foreign fermented liquors with effect from the 1st April 1909:—

1. The sale of foreign and country liquor on the same premises is strictly prohibited.

2. There shall be the following kinds of licenses:—

(1) Wholesale licenses.

Wholesale licenses shall be granted in form A on payment of fixed fees varying from R50 to R300 per annum, according to local circumstances. Additional fees of R50 to R100 should be charged for the privilege of bottling and of R250 to R500 for the privilege of compounding.

(2) Retail licenses for consumption off the premises only.

Licenses should be granted in form B to respectable persons on payment of fixed annual fees as follows:—

(a) Pishin District—

1st class	R 100	per annum.
2nd class	„ 50	„
(b) Sibi	„ 150	„
(c) Ziarat	„ 12	„

Licenses of this kind should be confined to cases where the business done at the shop is chiefly in single bottles or, in other words, where such business competes with that of the holders of "on" licenses and the minimum quantity to be sold under such a license shall be a full pint bottle corked and capsuled.

Fees for licenses at places other than those specified above shall be determined by the Revenue Commissioner.

(3) Licenses for consumption on the premises only.

Only one license in form C may be granted in the town of Quetta and the fee for such license shall be determined by public auction to be held annually. If the bid is lower than R600 a year no such license shall be granted.

(4) Licenses for the sale of fermented liquors only for consumption on the premises.

Licenses should be granted in form D on the payment of a fee of R300 a year.

(5) Hotel, Refreshment room (other than Railway Refreshment room) and Billiard room licenses.

Licenses in form E should be granted on payment of a fixed annual fee as under:—

1st class	R300
3rd class	„ 100

Sales for consumption on the premises under such a license should be restricted to persons using the premises for bonâ fide purposes, viz., (a) persons resident in an hotel, (b) persons taking their food in a refreshment room, or (c) persons playing or watching billiards in a billiard room. Where sale for removal is allowed the licensee should be required to take out a separate wholesale or retailsale license, or both, in respect of such sales on payment of the prescribed fee.

(6) Railway Refreshment room and dining cars licenses.

Licenses in forms F and G respectively should be granted on payment of a fixed fee which may vary from R25 to R250 a year. Care should be taken that holders of licenses confine their business to legitimate limits. They should not be allowed to establish a bar for sale to persons other than travellers or to conduct a wholesale or a retail business on the refreshment room premises except under a license of the class requisite to cover the business done.

(7) Staging bungalow licenses.

Licenses in form E with such modifications as may be necessary should be granted on payment of fees varying from R12 to R25 a year. The Deputy Commissioner may, for special reasons, which should be reported to the Revenue Commissioner, reduce the fee in unfrequented places where the amount of liquor sold is very small.

(8) Occasional bar licenses for consumption on the premises.

Occasional licenses, e.g., licenses for short periods for sales at entertainments or sports should be granted in form H but they should not be issued as a matter of course and should be strictly confined to the purposes for which they are granted. The minimum fee shall be R4 per day.

(9) Licenses to Contractors under the Military Canteen tenant system.

These licenses shall be in form E referred to in rule 2 (5) with such modifications as may be necessary on payment of the following fee :—

(i) For Regiments	. . . . .	R24 per annum.
(ii) For smaller Units	. . . . .	,, 12 ,,

NOTE.—Whenever the licensee desires to perform the operation of bottling or compounding, he must apply to the Deputy Commissioner to arrange for the attendance of an Excise Officer or other officer specified by the Deputy Commissioner for purposes of supervision.

4. The licenses prescribed in rule 2 will be granted by the Deputy Commissioner except dining car licenses which will be granted by the Revenue Commissioner in Baluchistan, subject to the provisions of these rules, the infraction of any of which or any of the provisions of the Excise Act, 1896 (XII of 1896), by the licensee or by any person employed by him, or acting under his orders, or by his authority, or with his knowledge or consent shall render the licensee liable to forfeiture by order of the Deputy Commissioner without prejudice to any penalty to which the licensee or the person committing such infraction may be liable under sections 49, 50 and 52 of the Excise Act, 1896 (XII of 1896).

5. Excepting occasional bar licenses paragraph 2 (8) which shall not be issued for any period exceeding 6 days no such license shall be issued for a period of more than one year or less than a quarter of a year calculated in all cases from the first day of one of the months of January, April, July or October and the fees in all cases shall be payable in advance.
